O R D E R:

It has been brought to the notice of the Government by the Collector & District Election Officer, Guntur that the Prohibition & Excise Department officials conducted raids at G.I. Textiles, Marripalem village of Edlapadu Mandal on 27.4.2014. During the raids, 24,384 Nip bottles containing spurious liquor were seized which were stored illegally. The G.I. Textiles belong to one Sri Ravi Venkata Ramana, presently contesting candidate from Ponnur. Sri M. Manoha, Prohibition & Excise Superintendent, Narasaraopet under whose jurisdiction, the place of storage falls was entrusted the responsibility of completing investigation, filing FIR and arresting the accused.

2. It has also been brought to the notice of the Government that though the Accused was available till the evening of 27.4.2014 and attended various programmes including PRESS meet at Ponnur, Sri M. Manoha, Prohibition & Excise Superintendent, Narasaraopet failed to arrest the accused and misguided the higher authorities and assisted the accused to escape and failed to take timely action. Discovery of huge quantity of NDP spurious liquor in the jurisdiction of the Prohibition & Excise Superintendent, Narasaraopet and mis-handling of the case by Sri M. Manoha, Prohibition & Excise Superintendent, Narasaraopet raises serious doubt about his role and prima-facie constitutes a case against him.

3. Government after careful examination of the matter, have decided to conduct a detailed enquiry into the whole matter through the Crime Investigation Department, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad with a view to ascertain the facts. Accordingly, the above matter is entrusted to Crime Investigation Department, Hyderabad to enquire into the matter and send a factual report to Government for taking further action.

4. Copy of the letter of the Collector & District Election Officer, Guntur dt: 28.4.2014 is herewith enclosed.
